

hay or straw, except hay in bundles, weighing thirty hundred pounds and upwards, the inspectors shall receive forty-five cents, and for all loads weighing less, than thirty hundred pounds, said inspector shall be entitled to receive one and a half cents per one hundred pounds and no more.

CHAP. 255.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the rate now required by law, for weighing hemp, cables, anchors, dye wood, bark, roots, etcetia, be and the same is hereby reduced to two cents per one hundred pounds.

Two cents per hundred weight.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

CHAPTER 255.

An act for the erection of an additional election district in Prince George's County.

Passed March 5, 1844.

WHEREAS it is represented to this General Assembly, by the memorial of sundry citizens of the third election district in Prince George's county, that they are subjected to great inconvenience from the size and extent of said district, that the place of holding meetings and elections is so remote, that they are unable to attend, without the most serious inconvenience. Therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Duckett, Fielder Cross and Richard C. Bowie, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay off and divide said election district, and to determine upon and designate some suitable house for holding the elections in said district, and that the lines of said district when laid off, and the house designated by them, shall be returned to the clerk of the county, to be by him recorded at the expense of the county, and said district when laid off, shall be known and designated as the seventh election district of said county, and the said commissioners shall be entitled to two dollars, for each and every day they shall be employed in discharging the duties required by this act, that upon the death or refusal to act of any one of the commissioners, it shall be the duty of the levy court of said county, to appoint another in his place.

Commissioners.